PLEASE JOIN US FOR OUR ANNUAL HUMAN RIGHTS COMMITTEE ETHICS WORKSHOP

“Taking a Step back to Look Forward: Remembering our Call to Serve All and the Ethics of Inclusion”

Presenters: Dr. LaShawn Thompson, Dr. Antwynette Shields, Ms. JoAnne Burns-Allen,
Ms. LouAnna Claveu, Ms. Sumedha Therthani, & Mr. Cleveland Phinisee

Summary:

Within this presentation, the presenters will assist participants in recognizing personal biases and understanding a counselor’s ethical behavior in light of personal bias and a current movement of exclusion. Presenters will assist with reaffirming the counselor’s responsibility towards inclusion of all individuals that seek services and will be presented with some skills to assist counselors in providing appropriate services for all as well as learning how counselors can then advocate for various marginalized groups to ensure all individuals feel safe within society.

Goals:

- Address personal bias and ethical behavior in the age of new laws and Supreme Court decisions
- Reaffirm the counselors ‘responsibility towards inclusion of all individuals seeking services
- Learn new skills to assist with inclusion
- Address our ethical responsibility to identify bias & advocate for equality of all

Fees for the event- $20 for five (5) hours of Ethics Credit

Fees can be paid at the time of Onsite-Registration
